

GoMA is Scotland's most visited modern art gallery and home to the City's modern art collections. Housed in an iconic building, GoMA is located in the heart of Glasgow – a city world famous for the artists that live and study here. An impressive range of artworks and exhibitions can be enjoyed by guests attending a function and as such, GoMA offers a dynamic combination of stunning architecture and cutting edge art for a unique event, including seminars, press briefings and drinks receptions.

Glasgow Life and its Service Brands including Glasgow Libraries (found at www.glasgowlife.org.uk) are operating names of Culture and Sport Glasgow.

Gallery One on the ground floor level is a generously proportioned area with a light and bright feel. The stone-floored area is ideally suited as a venue in which to host receptions, with the colourful and inspiring artistic displays providing interesting talking points for around 150 guests.

Gallery Two has the aim of providing an area of fluid motion. It is highly suitable for smaller receptions and private viewings. The gallery space, with its elegant windows, flooring and contemporary exhibition design, is a very tranquil and stylish space in which to host an event for up to 100 guests.

Gallery Four is normally used to host temporary exhibitions and is therefore popular with corporate clients who wish to treat clients to a private viewing of the works of well known and topical artists. Another light and roomy area, this Gallery can comfortably accommodate around 100 guests for a reception.

Catering

A catering service can be provided by Encore Hospitality Services at the Gallery of Modern Art.

Equipment

We can supply standard AV equipment, technical, security support and advise on most other event-related services for your event at very competitive rates.
