

The Kelvin Hall International Sports Arena offers clients the opportunity to host a very wide range of events in an impressive setting which has frequently been the backdrop for some of Scotland's largest and most prestigious sporting and cultural occasions. With a very central location and several spacious and flexible areas available for hire, the Kelvin Hall is capable of accommodating banquets and dinners for literally thousands of guests. There are also several medium and small venue hire areas which are ideal for events such as business meetings, seminars, press conferences and drinks receptions.

The Athletics Arena can provide an impressive setting suitable for a variety of special events for up to 2,500 guests. The expansive, high-ceilinged space is an ideal location for large gala dinners and entertainment. The Athletics Arena is also suitable for concerts and seminars for which a large attendance is anticipated

The Function Suite is a perfect location in which to host press conferences, seminars or meetings for between 150 and 200 guests (depending upon usage).

Areas 1 to 3 are often combined to host conferences, seminars, exhibitions, dinners and a range of sporting events. Up to 800 persons can be accommodated for a conference format event.

Areas 4 and 5 can be joined together to create an ideal space for larger training seminars, conferences and meetings. These spaces offer a combined capacity of around 2,500 (depending on seating arrangements selected).

The Kelvin Room is an attractive, smaller meeting room with a grand outlook to Kelvingrove Museum & Art Gallery. The comfortable setting of the Kelvin Room would be most suitable for smaller meetings or interviews.

The Kelvin Suite is a larger meeting space overlooking the Athletics Arena which has proved to be popular as a VIP area for meetings, training events, lunches and drinks receptions for up to 100 guests.

Catering
A full range of quality catering services can be provided by Encore Hospitality Services who have a full, permanent event catering base within the Kelvingrove Museum & Art Gallery, which is located directly opposite Kelvin Hall.
