What to expect when visiting us

Although covid rules and restrictions have been lifted in Scotland, the virus has not gone.

Continue to use 'Covid sense' to help protect yourself and others:

If you are experiencing any symptoms associated with COVID-19, please refrain from entering our buildings and book a test.

Face coverings – Although no longer mandatory, if you feel more comfortable wearing a face covering when visiting our venues, please do so.

Social distancing – Please be respectful of others while moving around the building.

Make use of our hygiene facilities – Our venue toilets are still being cleaned at regular intervals throughout the day and we still have sanitiser dispensers around the premises for your continued safety.

Card Payments – while we accept cash, we recommend contactless (limit £100) or chip & pin card payments while in our venues.

We reserve the right to make last minute changes to our safety measures in response to changes in government guidance as and when they may occur.

Booking & Transaction Fees

Fees may be subject to change

There's a 12% booking fee levied on all tickets sold via the venue booking system regardless of payment type or sales channel. This charge helps cover the running costs of the ticketing operations. A booking fee is not applied to the RSNO, BBC SSO & SCO orchestra tickets.

A transaction fee is applied per order to help process your card payments for online and telephone bookings. Online transaction £1.50 / Telephone transaction £1.75 / No charge in person at counter.

Dispatch fees: No charge for e-ticket / £1.00 for post (UK addresses only)

Tickets are non-refundable and non-transferrable.

Additional fees could be applied on any tickets you purchase from a third-party ticket seller.

Age Restrictions: Please check any age restrictions when buying your tickets as entry may be refused subject to any age-appropriate content. All under 14s must be accompanied by an adult over 18 years.

Accessibility Advice

Glasgow Royal Concert Hall: The North entrance via Killermont Street will give you access to automated doors and lifts to all levels.

City Halls/Old Fruitmarket: Entrances via Candleriggs and Albion Street are fully accessible.

Wheelchairs are available on request and can be pre-booked via the box office. Assistance dogs are welcome at Glasgow's Concert Halls.

We have an assisted hearing system in operation (can be used as both; a stand-alone hearing aid or as an enhancement to an existing hearing aid) throughout our concert halls' venues.

Headsets are available for a £5 refundable deposit and can be pre-booked via the box office.
