

THE GREAT BIG MACKINTOSH BUS TOUR

Saturday 21st July, 11am-4pm

Hop on a FREE vintage bus and travel between

- Kelvin Hall
- Mackintosh at The Willow
- The Mackintosh House
- The Lighthouse
- Kelvingrove Museum
- Scotland Street School Museum
- Mackintosh Queens Cross Church

#GBMBT
glasgowmuseums.com

THE GREAT BIG MACKINTOSH BUS TOUR

Various venues \ drop in
All Family \ Sat 21st July \ 11am-4pm

Glasgow Museums is delighted to bring you The Great Big Mackintosh Bus Tour 2018. Come aboard for a rewarding day out at our museums and other Mackintosh venues with FREE specially planned activities. A FREE vintage bus service, provided by the Glasgow Vintage Vehicle Trust, will pick you up and drop you off between:
Kelvin Hall, Mackintosh at The Willow, Mackintosh House, The Lighthouse, Kelvingrove Museum, Scotland Street, School Museum, Mackintosh Queens Cross Church. Visit glasgowmuseums.com for more information and the bus timetable.

KELVIN HALL

Drop in and create a mini chair to take home; or join us for an informal tour to view original Mackintosh chairs.

Or take a store tour which will run at 11.30am, 12.30pm, 2.30pm and 3.30pm and will last around 30 minutes.

Argyle Street, Glasgow, G3 8AW
0141 276 1450

MACKINTOSH AT THE WILLOW

A chance to visit Charles Rennie Mackintosh's restored and preserved Willow Tea Room Building.

217 Sauchiehall Street, G2 3EL
www.willowtearoomstrust.org

THE MACKINTOSH HOUSE

The Hunterian will offer talks on Mackintosh and his wife Margaret MacDonald and will be showing some special Mackintosh prints not normally on display.

82 Hillhead St, Glasgow G12 8QQ
0141 330 5434

THE LIGHTHOUSE

The Lighthouse was the first public commission that Mackintosh worked on! Visit our Mack Centre on Level Three to explore his life and work.

11 Mitchell Lane, Glasgow, G1 3NU
0141 276 5365

KELVINGROVE ART GALLERY AND MUSEUM

A day of stencilling, making willow hearts, and embroidery by Kelvin College and metalwork demonstrations by Bryony Knox.

Argyle Street, Glasgow, G3 8AG
0141 276 9599

SCOTLAND STREET SCHOOL MUSEUM

Hop off at Scotland Street School and make your own Mackintosh inspired playground toy!

Scotland Street, Glasgow, G5 8QB
0141 287 0500

MACKINTOSH QUEEN'S CROSS CHURCH

Explore Mackintosh's only built church. Boasting magnificent stained glass, exceptional relief carvings and dramatic use of light. Visitors can walk freely.

870 Garscube Road,
G20 7EL
T: 0141 946 6600

Illustrations by Jeff Fallow