Glasgow Museums is delighted to bring you the Great Big Heritage Bus Tour 2019. Come aboard for a rewarding day out at our museums with FREE specially planned venues. A FREE vintage bus service, provided by the Glasgow Vintage Vehicle Trust, will pick you up and drop you off between:

The Riverside Museum, The Tall Ship, Govan Stones, Fairfield Heritage, Kelvin Hall, Glasgow Film Theatre, Gallery of Modern Art and Britannia Panopticon Music Hall.

The Tall ship

As part of the Great Big Heritage Bus Tour, The Tall Ship will be offering a free drop-in ship themed shadow puppetry craft activity.

Fairfield Heritage

At Fairfield Heritage shipbuilding museum, we're "gawn tae the pictures!" Explore Glasgow's 1950s cinema heyday! Make your own 'claymation' animated film and beat the 'Rough Seas' movie quiz!

Govan Stones

Drop in to unleash your inner Indiana Jones and discover the lost Kingdom of Strathclyde! See archaeological evidence of Glasgow's Viking-age! Get battle-ready with medieval armour and weaponry!

Britannia Panopticon Music Hall

Step back in time to the heyday of variety theatre when you visit the world's oldest surviving music hall. See the stage where Stan Laurel made his debut and hosted the greats of Scottish variety such as Harry Lauder and Jack Buchanan!

The Riverside Museum

Calling all budding directors, producers and actors! Follow a trail around the museum to make, play and learn everything you need to make a mini-movie using exhibits as backdrops and scenery.

Gallery of Modern Art

Journey around the world with Fiona Tan. Join us for a fun day filled with object handling sessions, guided tours and creative activities as we explore the film "Disorient" by Fiona Tan and go for a journey around the world!

Provand's Lordship

Step back in time with a visit to Provand's Lordship – the oldest house in Glasgow! Join our activity and be transformed into a character from the past using our fabulous replica costumes. Selfie heaven!

Kelvin Hall

Hop off at Kelvin Hall for a music themed tour of our museum store, and learn about music hall legends with the National library of Scotland.

Glasgow Film Theatre

Welcome to the iconic Glasgow Film Theatre, home of independent cinema. Take some time to enjoy Discovery Film Festivals' Shorts for Middle Ones in our newest screen before you continue your journey.
