

Virtual Mela Digital Producer Internship

Are you 18-25 years old?

Established in 1990, Glasgow Mela turns 30 in 2020. Responding to COVID-19, Glasgow Mela 2020 has become the Virtual Mela. We are looking for someone to assist with producing effective and efficient digital content to Glasgow Life and Our Shared Cultural Heritage regarding Virtual Mela, and Mela Memories - an Our Shared Cultural Heritage celebration of the Mela's 30th anniversary. The Virtual Mela Digital Producer Intern will join the Virtual Mela Project Planning team in September and October, working under the supervision of the Our Shared Cultural Heritage project coordinator, with support from the Mela team and Glasgow Museums.

Apply for this role by:

1. A copy of your CV and
2. A response, either in writing (500 words) or by video (no longer than 2 minutes), to the following question:

What does heritage mean to you?

Closing date: 30th August 2020

Interviews will be held on week commencing 31st August 2020. (TBC)

Application and Informal enquiries

Applications and informal enquiries about these posts can be made to Diljeet Bhachu (Our Shared Cultural Heritage project coordinator)

Email: diljeet.bhachu@glasgowlife.org.uk

