European Capital of Sport Fund Glasgow 2023

Thinking about Applying

Q. Where can I find out more information about the European Capital of Sport Glasgow 2023 Fund?

A. We recommend that you read the guidelines to understand how the fund can support your organisation.

Q. Who is eligible for the European Capital of Sport Glasgow 2023 Fund?

A. Not-for-profit groups and organisations within Glasgow are eligible for the fund.

Priority will be given to projects working with young people, people with disabilities, low-income families, women and ethnic minority groups.

Unfortunately, we are unable to accept applications from individuals, sole traders, unconstituted groups, schools, statutory bodies, NGBs, organisations established to make profit or organisations based outside the city of Glasgow boundary.

Applying

Q. How can I apply?

A. Once you have read the guidelines and decided on your project, complete the online application form.

Q. When can I apply?

A. Glasgow will be European Capital of Sport for the full year in 2023, to provide a fair opportunity for all organisations to apply for support throughout the year, the fund will have 2 phases.

- Phase 1 for projects taking place between January and June 2023. Applications open on Monday 7th December with a deadline of Monday 12h December 2022 at 12 noon.
- Phase 2 for projects taking place between July and December 2023. Applications open on Saturday 1st April with a deadline of Monday 8th May 2023 at 12 noon.

Q. What can I use the funding for?

A. Fixed amount awards of £750 to support projects. Activities must support local people to get active through sport and physical activity.

Successful applicants can use the funding to best meet the needs of the local community to expand activities or hold an event to reach a new audience.

Q. Is there anything you will not fund?

A. The funding cannot be used for restricted items such as alcohol, gambling, cash prizes and offensive material.

Q. What types of project will the fund support?

A. The fund has 2 elements to support community organisations:

- The Celebrate element will support communities to come together to find out more about opportunities to take part in sport and physical activity in their local area through community events and campaigns.
- The Innovate element will support organisations to create exciting programmes and activities for new audiences into their communities, breaking down the barriers to participation in sport and physical activity, particularly for groups who are underrepresented.
