Welcome to Provand's Lordship Visual Storyboard

Glasgow
CITY COUNCIL

This is Provand’s Lordship.

Come and have a look inside. A gallery assistant can help you if you ask.

Museum staff wear a ‘Glasgow Life’ logo on a pink or black lanyard and name badges.

You can see old rooms and old furniture.

There is a small low door out to the St Nicholas Garden.

Staff can open another much larger wheelchair-accessible door if needed.

You can sit and watch films about the story of the building. Touch the screen to start the film.

There is a sloping floor and uneven steps. Some of the doors are small and low.

This is upstairs.

There is a life-size model of a man sitting in a chair.

There are paintings on the walls and places to sit.

Children can do activity sheets here.

This is the Donations Box. All donations are welcome.

This is St Nicholas Garden.

There are cobble stones and plants in the middle of the garden.

There is a smooth surface around the edge of the garden.

There is an exit from the garden onto the street.

There are toilets across the road in St Mungo Museum of Religious Life and Art.

The fire alarm is a bell ringing. Museum staff will guide you out of the building through a fire exit.

Do not go back inside the building unless a member of museum staff tells you that it is safe.

Thank you and see you soon.
