

Top Picks
Sat 1 August

Merchant City Festival

EXPLORE

12:00pm

Talk: Rethinking Scottish Identity

Jackie Kay will advocate for an expansive view of Scottishness that acknowledges our complex history and reflects our inherent diversity.

City Halls

Book your ticket now

Take a wander through the streets of Merchant City and experience the surprise and delight of Surge Street Theatre

2:00pm

I am...

An open ended performance that encourages connection and participation from Sonia Hughes.

Clyde Street - One World Mural

Visit our brand new venue The Briggait, enjoy food from The Rail Yard and music from Radio Buena Vida in Clydeisde Commons

4:00pm

Watershed: Who Owns the Clyde?

What role does murky and fragmented ownership play in the River Clyde's failure to achieve its potential? Join in on this discussion to find out.

Bridgewater Hall, The Briggait

Book your FREE spot now

Head to Candleriggs Square for a PITCH Scotland live music takeover. Free Entry.

6:00pm

Women of the Windrush

An Opera by Shirley J. Thompson

Dedicated to her 'Windrush' Mother, this is a celebration of community, identity, and ingenuity.

City Halls

Buy your ticket for just £10.42

