

Domestic animals?

There's lots of animals hiding in this exhibition.
Can you find them all?

Follow the clues below, starting from the main exhibition entrance.
You can check your answers on the reverse of this page.

1. Stay on the left hand side of the gallery and find three artworks by Alasdair Gray. In 'Jimmy Reid and Family' the first animal is on their windowsill.

2. Look around the gallery and find a sink. There are two types of animal on some perfume bottles, made by the artist Niki de Saint Phalle. What are the animals and how many are there?

3. The next animal is resting beside the fireplace to keep warm! What is it?

4. In the picture above the fireplace (by the artist Nick Waplington) the woman is wearing a pair of slippers. What are they shaped as?

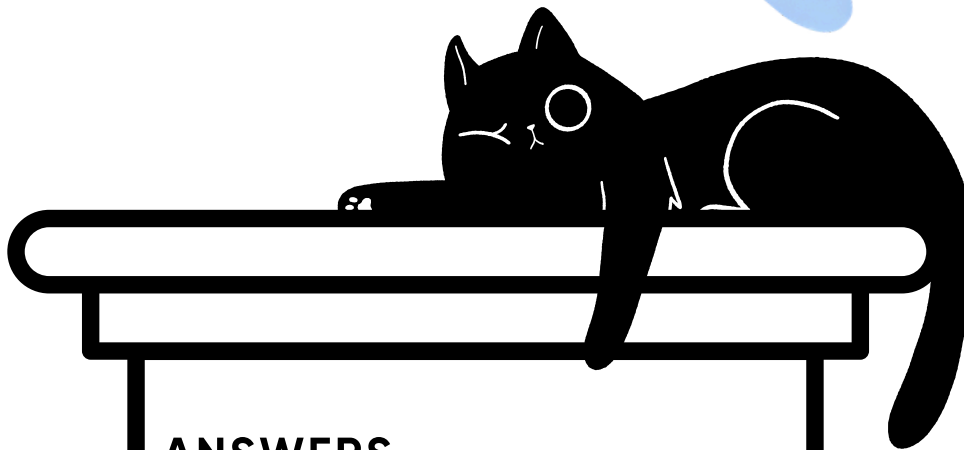

5. Niki de Saint Phalle has another artwork in the gallery. Can you find this colourful animal that would provide you milk for your tea?

6. Speaking of tea, have a look at the mugs in the display case. There are three different types of animals on them, can you find them all?

7. There is a game of 'Cat and Mouse' happening in this watercolour, can you find it? It's the final cat in this gallery!
