Welcome to our What's On Guide

Join us this December as we celebrate the festive season with fabulous live music and entertainment at Glasgow's Concert Halls. The year may be drawing to a close but there's still plenty of time in 2023 to make treasured memories for yourself and your loved ones.

This What's On guide is your handy tool to plan your entertainment over Christmas and into the New Year. Exciting shows await us in 2024, beginning with the Celtic Connections festival – the UK's premier celebration of Celtic music. Find out more about the festival at celticconnections.com

Tickets and e-vouchers are available to buy online, redeemable across our venues – Glasgow Royal Concert Hall, City Halls & Old Fruitmarket and Kelvingrove Bandstand.

New events are added every week so remember to visit our website or sign up for our e-newsletter to stay in the know.

Booking & Transaction Fees

Fees may be subject to change

There's a 12% booking fee levied on all tickets sold via the venue booking system regardless of payment type or sales channel. This charge helps cover the running costs of the ticketing operations. A booking fee is not applied to the RSNO, BBC SSO & SCO orchestra tickets.

A transaction fee is applied per order to help process your card payments for online and telephone bookings. Online transaction £1.50 / Telephone transaction £1.75 / No charge in person at counter.

Fulfilment fees: No charge for e-ticket / £1.95 for post (UK addresses only)

Tickets are non-refundable and non-transferrable.

Additional fees could be applied on any tickets you purchase from a third-party ticket seller.

Age Restrictions: Please check any age restrictions when buying your tickets as entry may be refused subject to any age-appropriate content. Under 16s must be accompanied by an adult over 18.

Accessibility Advice

Glasgow Royal Concert Hall: The North entrance via Killermont Street will give you access to automated doors and lifts to all levels.

City Halls/Old Fruitmarket: The building entrance via Candleriggs is fully accessible.

Wheelchairs are available on request and can be pre-booked via the box office. Assistance dogs are welcome at Glasgow's Concert Halls.

We have an assisted hearing system in operation (can be used as both; a stand-alone hearing aid or as an enhancement to an existing hearing aid) throughout our venues.

Headsets are available for use during events for a refundable £5 deposit. Please ask our venue staff when you arrive and they will be happy to help.
