Welcome to the Riverside Museum Visual Storyboard

Glasgow
CITY COUNCIL

This is the Riverside Museum.

Come and have a look inside.

There is a large open square in front of the museum. Sometimes we have events on here, such as a vintage car display, or a fire engine display. These can get very busy.

Outside we have an area where people can use skateboards and bikes.

We also have a basketball hoop outside the museum where people might be playing games.

We have picnic benches outside, some of them have space for wheelchair access.

There are lots of objects inside.

There is a reception is to your right at the front entrance.

At the museum entrance next to The Tall Ship, there is another desk where a gallery assistant will greet you.

Staff out on the museum floor and at the desks will be wearing a black uniform.
Gallery assistants can help you.

Museum staff all wear a pink or black lanyard.

The museum shop is to your right. You can buy gifts here.

You can look at objects on display.

They are fragile, so please do not touch.

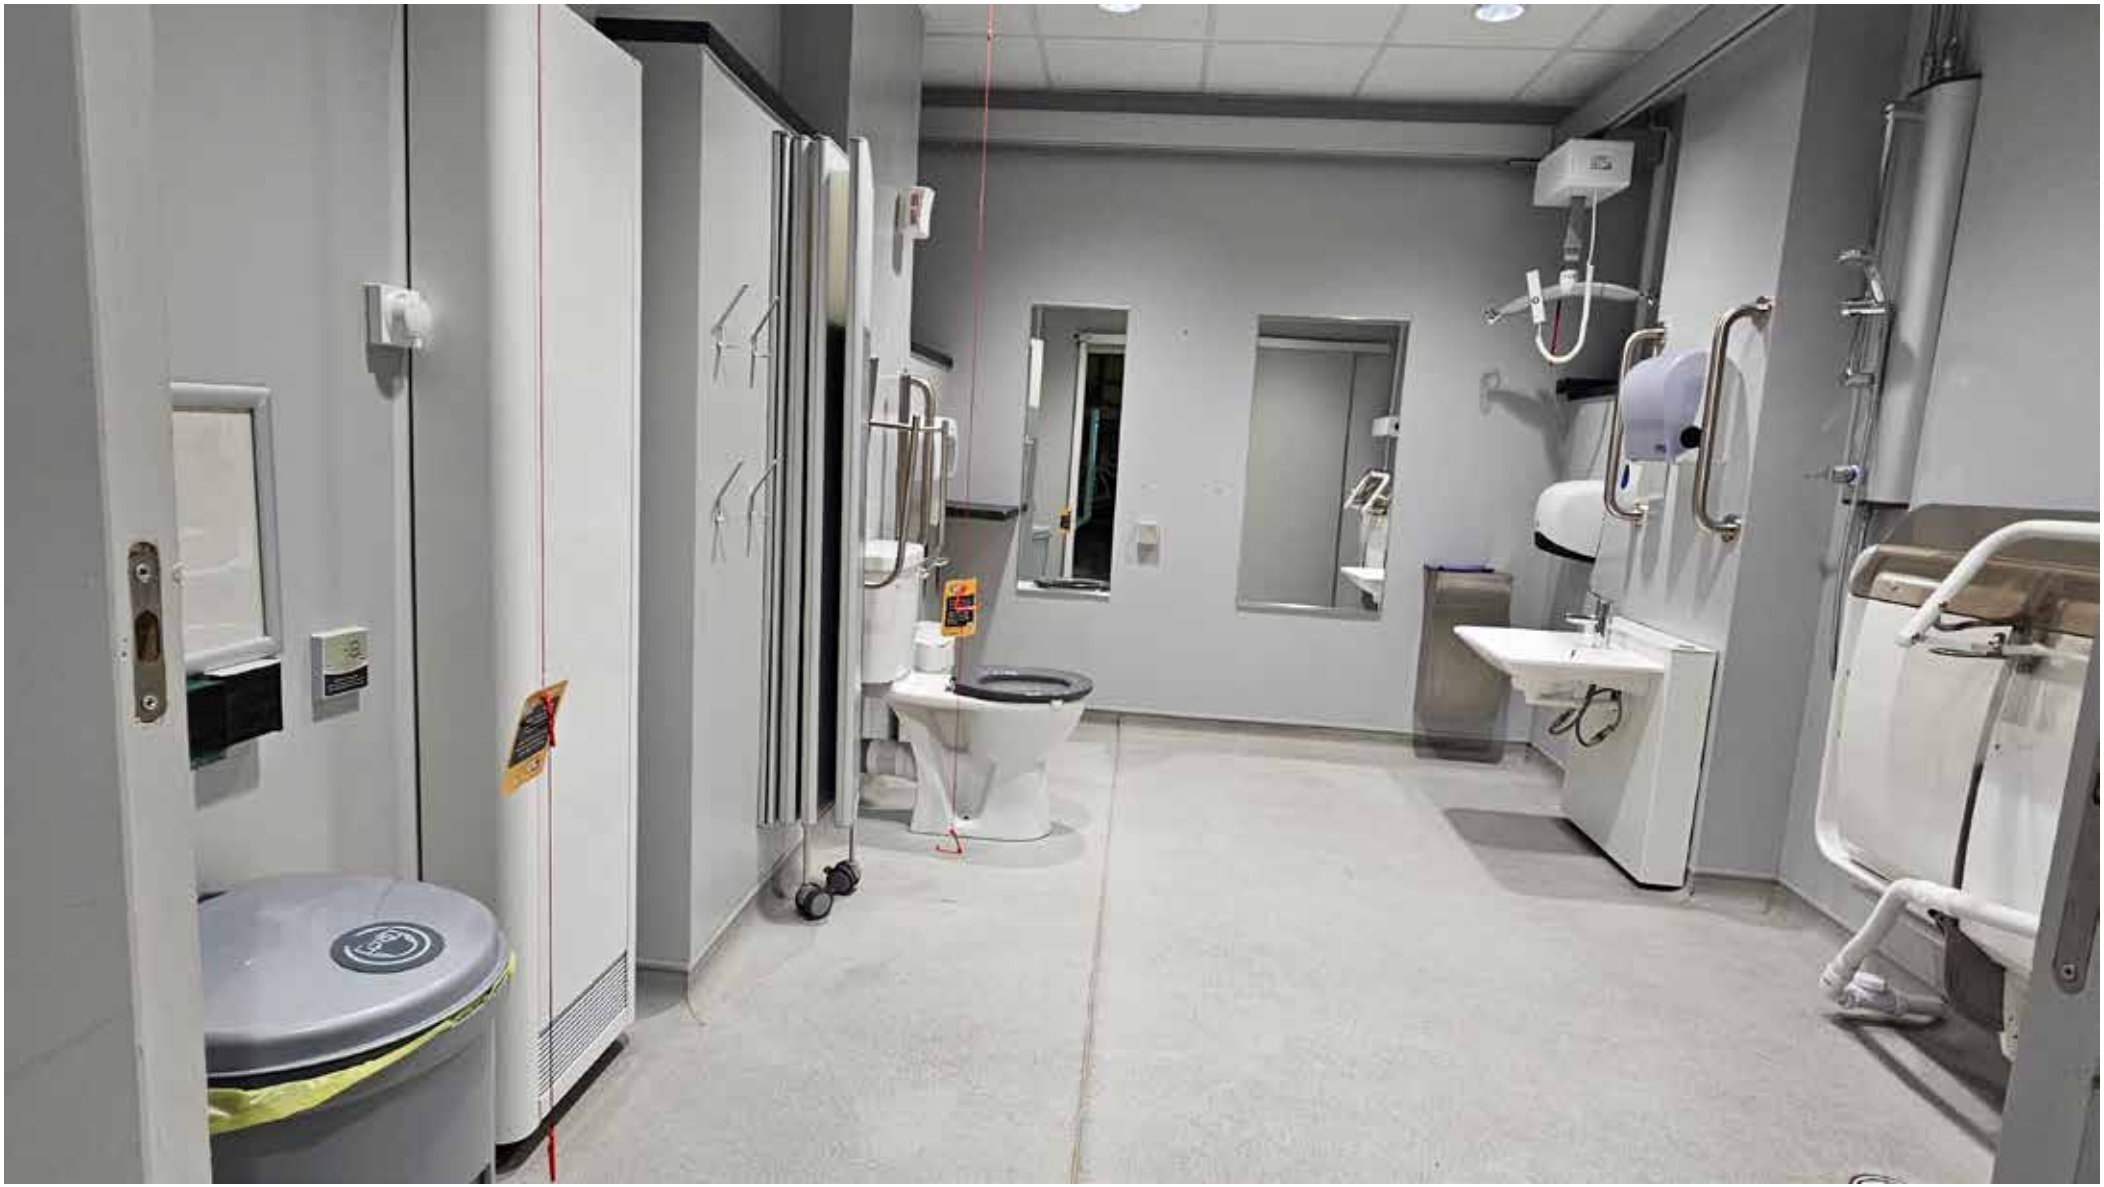

There are toilets.

There are accessible toilets.

The toilets have hand-dryers.

We also have a Changing Places facility.

Assistance dogs are welcome.

There are lifts between both floors of the museum.

There are also stairs between both floors.

There are large windows like this one.

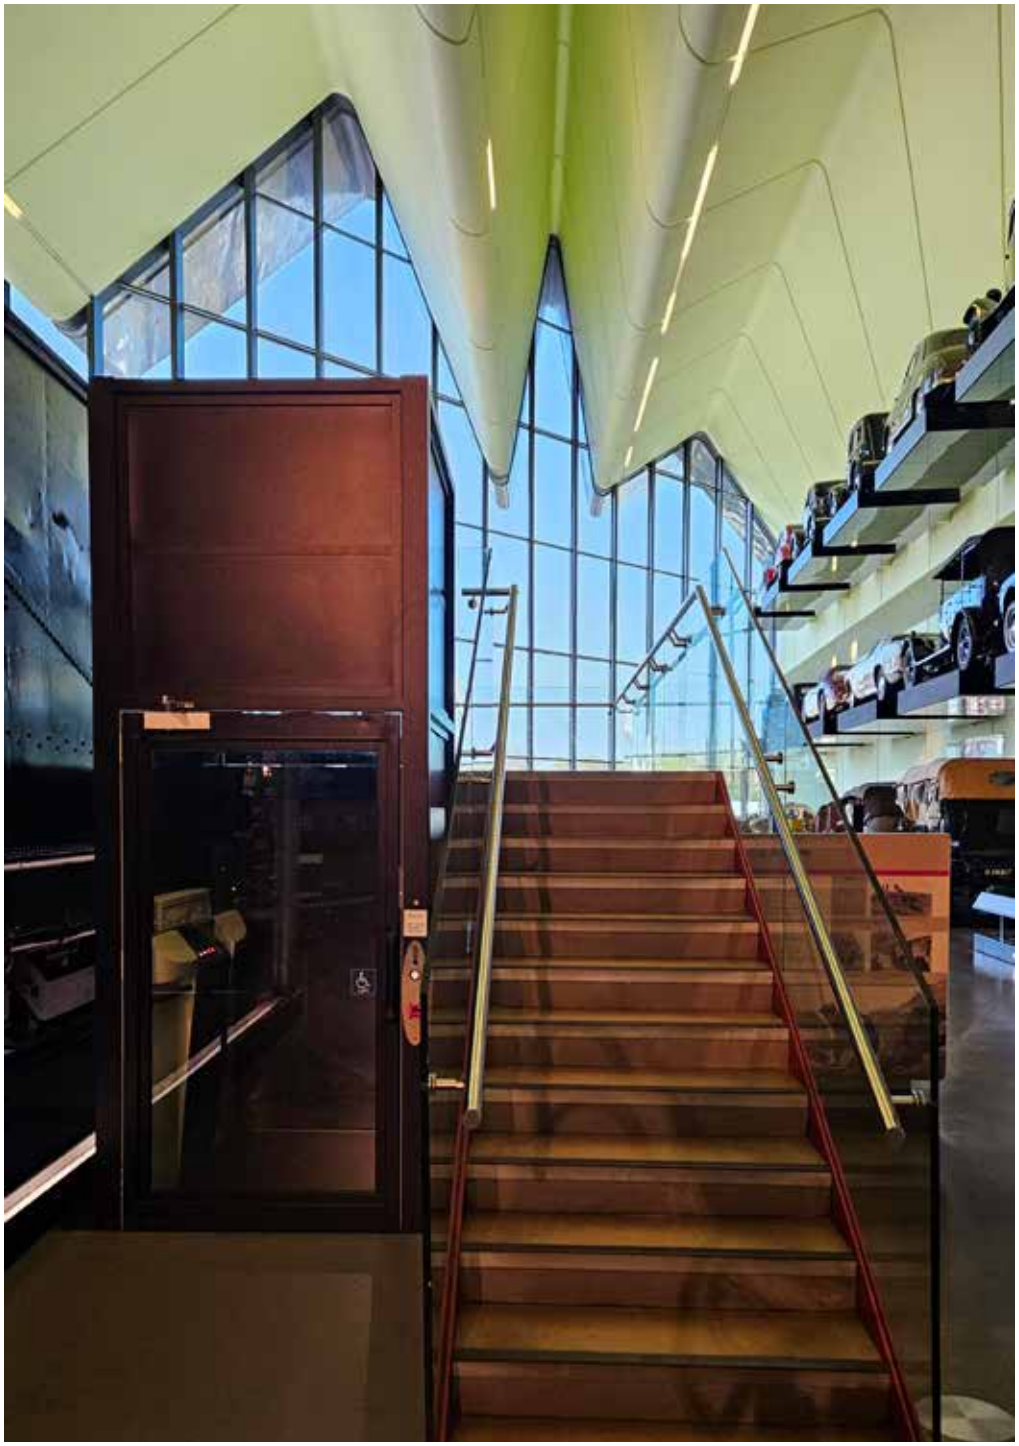

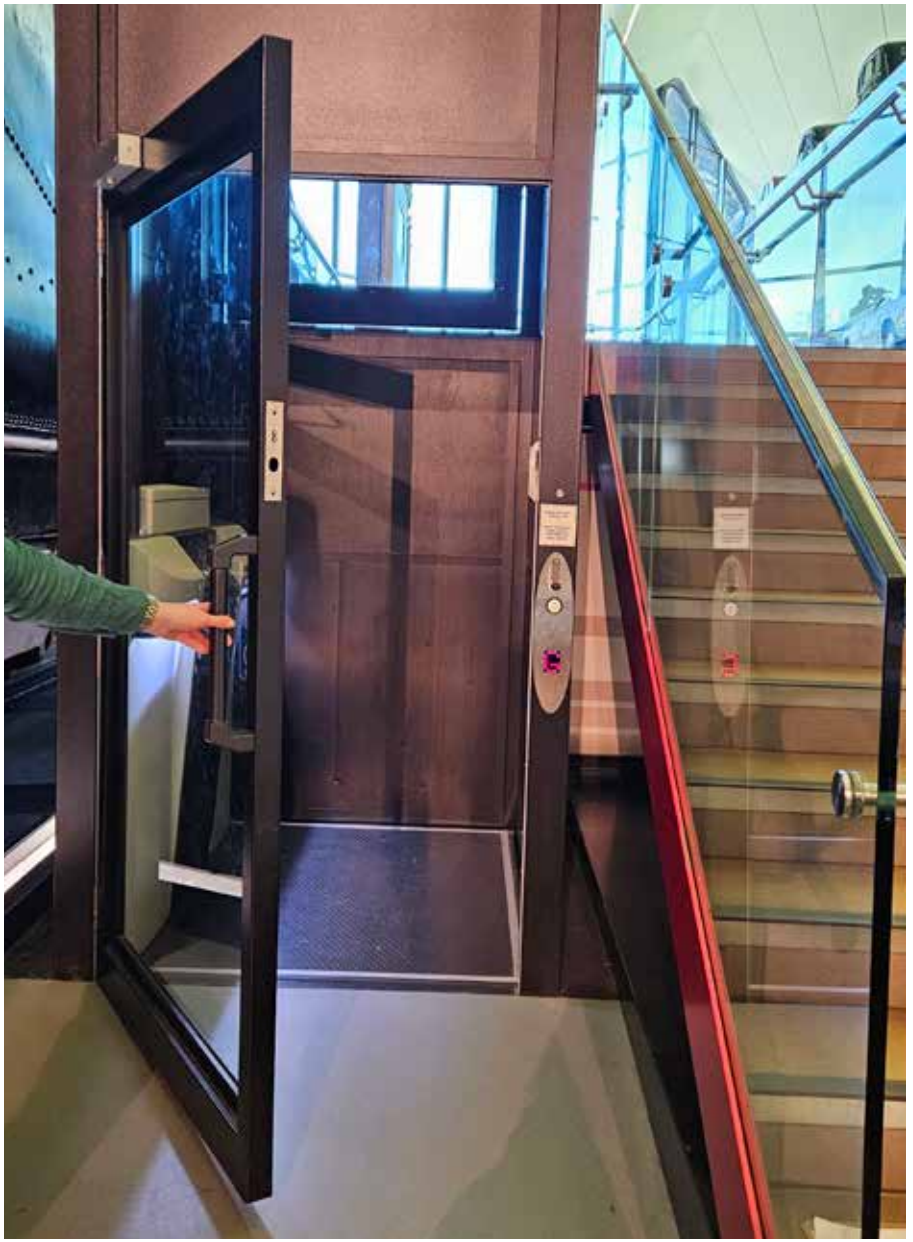

There are information touch-screens, videos and interactive games.

Some play automatically, some are touch screen.

Upstairs, you can sit on the C5 interactive.

There are steam trains. You can look inside from the platforms.

There are stairs and a lift to the platforms.

You can step inside some trams.

There are red stairs leading to the ones you can access

You can sit in two of the subway trains.

This is our old street. There are cobbles and tramlines on the road. The pavement is smooth.

You can hear sound effects such as horses' hooves, thunder and lightning.

You can go into some of the replica shops and businesses. You cannot buy anything inside.

Some of the shops have videos with sound which will play automatically.

The ship launch show is loud.
It plays every half hour.

A countdown timer appears on the screen before the show starts.

This is upstairs.
You can sit and watch the ships go by.

The road crossing display is noisy and busy.

This is the learning space.

Schools visit this space with a learning assistant.

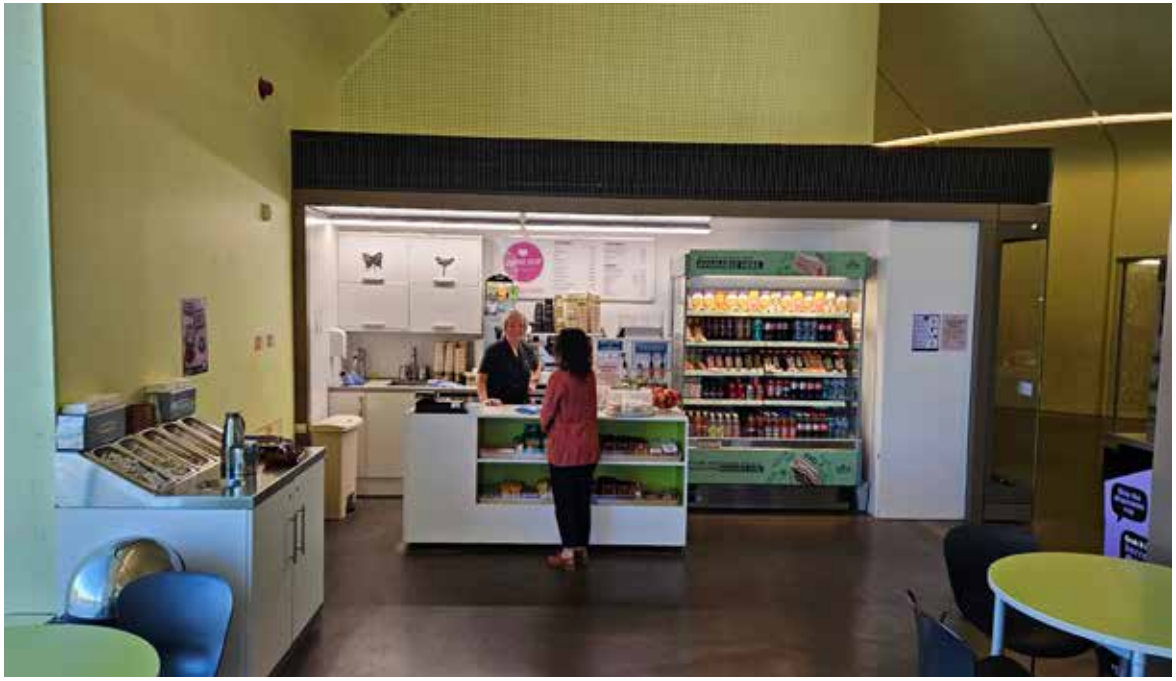

Sometimes this space is closed.

You can bring your own lunch to eat at our picnic spaces.

You can queue up to buy sandwiches and coffee at the Coffee Stop.

You can get table service and hot meals in the Riverside Café.

If the fire alarm goes off, it makes a loud siren noise.

Museum staff will guide you out of the building through a fire exit.

Do not go back inside the building unless a member of museum staff tells you that it is safe.

Thank you and see you soon.

The museum is busiest during weekends and school holiday times.
